

ADVANCED JUNIOR BOY'S & GIRL'S TRAINING CLINIC 2009

 Specialised Coaching * Swing Analysis * Course Management * Live-in @ Union College*

Once again Golf Queensland will give young golfers from across the State a fantastic opportunity to develop their golfing ability in the annual Advanced Junior Boys & Girls Training Clinic.

The week long clinic will be held from 4 - 11 January 2009, and run in conjunction with the Queensland Junior Boys & Girls Championships which will be held at Indooroopilly and Gales Golf Clubs.

After a welcome at Union College on Sunday 4 January, the boys will be taken to Indooroopilly and the girls will be taken to Gales Golf Club for a practice round. They will then play 18 holes over the next 4 days in their respective Championships.

After the 4 days of the Championship, the Clinic then moves out to Golf Queensland's State Training Facility at Brookwater Golf Club where Golf Queensland's "AAA" rated PGA professional coaches will provide 3 days of intensive coaching on every aspect of each player's game.

All participants will be accommodated at Union College — St Lucia for the week with most meals provided.

2009 will signal the first time that boys and girls will attend the clinic together, with separate accommodation provided for each within the Union College campus.

Those players living more than 350 km north of Brisbane will be provided with return air travel from their nearest airport.

It's a great opportunity for any aspiring young golfer, and with limited places, get your entry form in as soon as possible.
